

The no call law has been like a breath of fresh air. The exceptions for political and charitable organizations are nuisance enough. Please don't allow any more feet in the door.